(a short story of the band)

Arch of Hell is a melodic-metal band from Brno, Czech republic. The core features of their music are hard guitar riffs, melodic keyboards and a typical contrast of two different vocals.

The band was more symfo-metal oriented in the past, but with the new songs also came a new, harder and more modern style of music.

AOH released their debut album „One Day“ in 2009 under the Czech label IFA records. The album was very positively received by both the critics and the audience. Three years later the band released two demo songs „The Game“ and „Because of You“.

In the middle of 2015 AOH released a new single song and a live video „Architects of the Absurd“ and the preparation of a new album started. The next album „Freakshow“ was recorded in 2016, the band also shot their very first music video „Freakshow“. This album had many amazing reactions by fans.

In 2017 AOH started to cooperate with the new label Metalgate. With this collaboration also came a new project „One Day reedition“ - new mix, new sound and a new song- which had many good reviews, mainly because of the first acoustic song and music video „One Day unplugged“.

Nowadays, the band is actively performing and preparing material for the next album.

AOH has performed at many gigs and music festivals all over the Czech republic. For example Hardline Therapy 2009, Made of Metal 2015, MetalGate Czech Death Fest 2017, and has played as a support with bands FLESHGOD APOCALYPSE (IT), SHINING (NOR), IMPALED NAZARENE (FIN), RAINTIME (IT), PATHFINDER (PL), MODERN DAY BABYLON (CZ), ROOT (CZ) and others.
